More meat for the slaughter! People flee in terror to Maineral!

Charlatan coming from abroad

Do not be swayed by the charlatan coming from a distant land.

He is nothing more than a fraud.

However, other Mages may flock to him like the sheep they are.

If so, you could use this opportunity to deal swift justice to the other Mages.

June 5th, evening,
Rue Heights

As the population increase, so too does the discord...

Bring light to the heathens!

You must do what you can to purify and enlighten this city, despite its misguided people.

Only YOU can perform this task.

Read more about this on page 17.

Chaotic Fires spread!

As the misguided populace grows weary, accidents happen more frequently.

Fires will spread through the city and you will herald my coming into this world!

HUNGER

Meat. Sustenance. You must devour all. You must...

★ Mysterious Beasts ★

A fellow evangelist has appeared in the city, bringing my Light to the people of Maineral.

They call him "The Odd Job Slayer".

He has so far brought 5 to see the light in seven days.

Weather report:
Clear skies

Today the skies will be cloudy and murky, as will the Mages' morale.

However, towards the evening I must bring hope to the people, the skies will clear up and the city will bask in My glow.

Tomorrow I will bring wind to the city of Maineral and the Mages will be buffeted by it. Use this to your advantage.

Upcoming Festivities

Local festivities will occur tomorrow at noon near the Hudson Green Park.

You could use this opportunity to spread the word as my apostle. But beware Mages and their trickeries.
